In case you need to miss a lesson, we offer the flexibility to make up that lesson in a corresponding class allowing you to stay on track with your training. Please note that, regardless of the reason for your absence, we do not offer deductions or refunds for missed classes. We appreciate your understanding and commitment to your dance journey.

PRIVATE LESSONS

We offer private lessons for students who have their sights set on competing in dance competitions and festivals. These personalised sessions are designed to provide the specialized training and attention needed to excel in the competitive dance world.
